Try Mojo—FREE for 6 months*

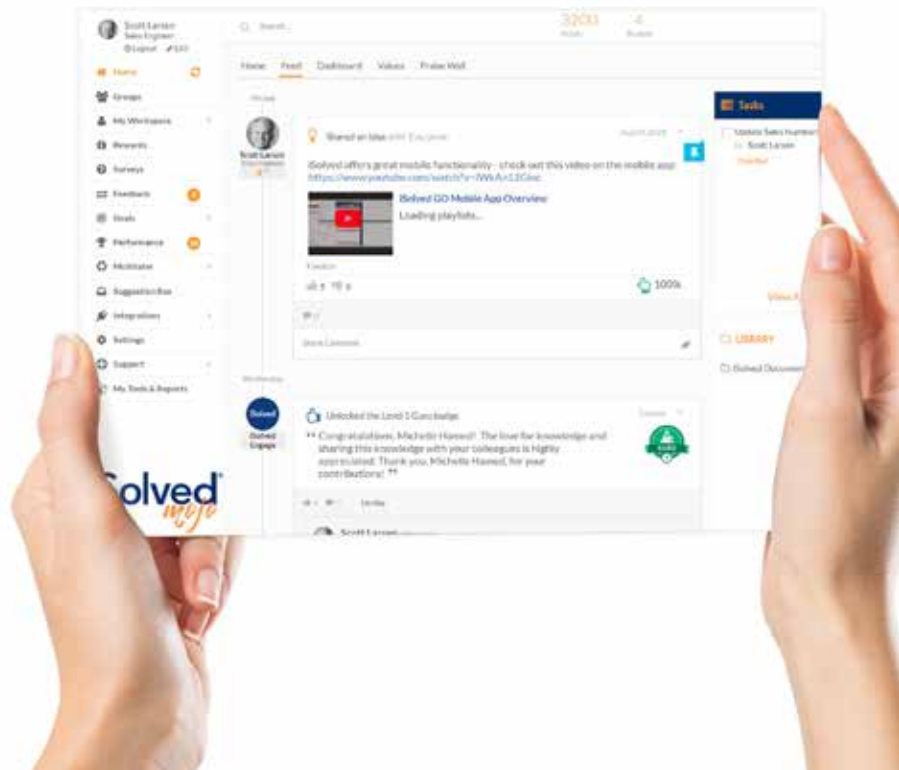

Keep your people fully engaged, even if everyone is working from home.

The empowering social features in Mojo give your people a positive boost when they need it most, but more importantly it allows your employees to be more productive, come together when they are remote.

We're all feeling the pain and business disruption of COVID-19. But we have something that we know can help you defy it. It will keep your people fully engaged, connected and productive, even when everyone is suddenly working from home. And we want to share it with you.

Our team-building software is made for remote workers and can be a gamechanger in times like this. We use Mojo to keep our own business functioning and teams connected. So, you can count on it too.

Let us help your business get through the worst of the COVID-19 crisis. And make the current situation a little easier on your workforce.

Try Mojo—FREE for 6 months*.

We're currently making the social features in Mojo available at no cost.

*6 months of free Mojo Social offer valid April 1st—Sept 30th 2020.
